-Student Recital with Segunda Quimbamba:
Sunday, June 4, 1- 6 PM at Nimbus Arts Center

Attend biweekly midweek Zoom meetings: Hablando con los Maestros. Covering additional practice, discussions of cultural history, the instruments, the rhythms, the diaspora or whatever is on YOUR mind, community building using different platforms for shared learning space.

All students are assessed by the SQFC team for appropriate class learning. We ask you to inform the team of your needs to ensure your comfort level and full participation in the classroom experience. It is important we know we are engaging you in an appropriate and safe way for movement in your body. We are here to support your learning.

Learning both dance and drum art forms enhance the knowledge of the rhythms and their interconnected intricacies. Adults and children 9 and older are welcome into this program. Classes are for beginners and intermediate students. A limited number of skirts and drums are available to use in class. Dancers dress comfortably. Socks or barefoot for dance. If you own a bomba or djembe or plena drum, please bring it to class.
